FILM CLAPPERBOARDS TO BE AUCTIONED AT ZFF ON SUNDAY

Zlín – This festival Sunday will be the twenty-second time that unique film clapperboards, artistically-rendered by Czech artists, will be auctioned off. There are 123 of them this year and the proceeds of the auction, as always, will go to support the work of emerging filmmakers. The director of the new film The Painted Chick, Václav Marhoul, will be on hand to open an exhibition and talk, meetings on travelling have been organized with journalist Jakub Szántó, actress Dorota Nvotová, and travellers who followed in the footsteps of Hanzelka and Zikmund with the Zikmund100 project.

THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS OF THE THIRD DAY:

22nd Clapperboard Salon - public auction, Congress Center, 1:00 pm

- A legendary event in which works of art are turned into financial support for young filmmakers. This year, among the artists who contributed were Kristián Kodet, Iva Hüttnerová, Jiří Slíva and Kateřina Miler.

The World of The Painted Chick – the opening of a unique exhibition and a discussion with Václav Marhoul about the new Czech film The Painted Chick, starring Hollywood stars Harvey Keitel and Stellan Skarsgård. Large-format photographs of Jan Dobrovský, original director's background for filming (storyboards, script, books, etc.). Zlín Department Store, café on the 2nd floor, 7 pm. The exhibition will last until June 1.
